ABOUT ME

MAXX CABELLO JR

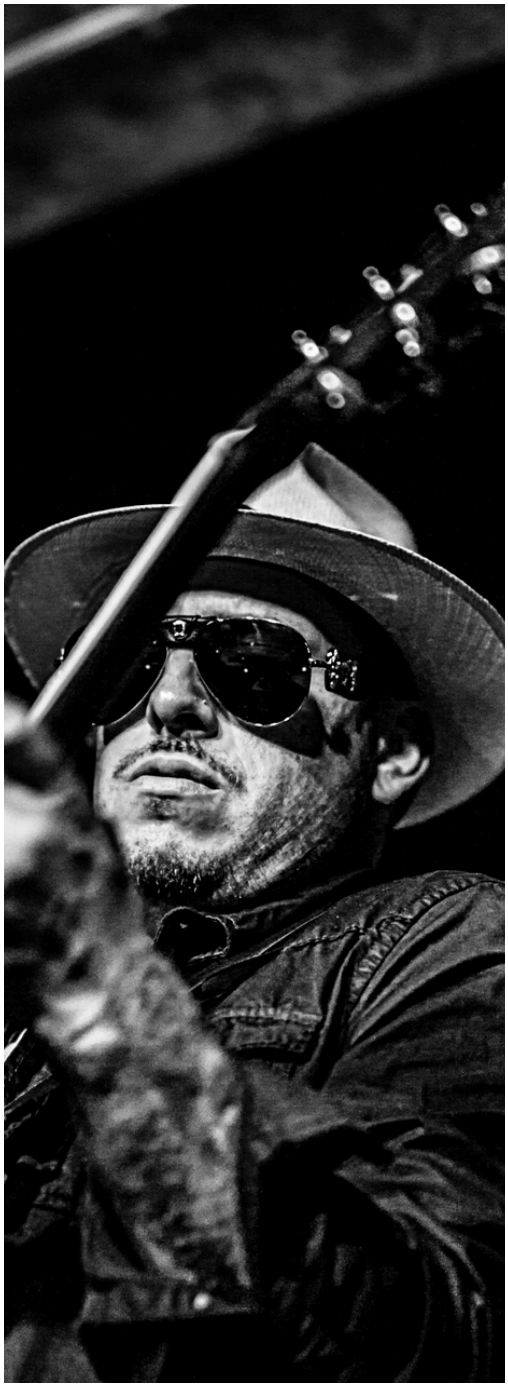

Maxx Cabello Jr. is an electrifying guitarist, soulful vocalist, and prolific songwriter from the San Francisco Bay Area. With a dynamic stage presence and unmatched talent, he has captivated audiences worldwide and earned his place among the most exciting artists of his generation.

Drawing inspiration from legends like Jimi Hendrix and Carlos Santana, Maxx has crafted a distinctive sound that blends blues, rock, soul, funk, latin jazz, and his unique artistry. His guitar work is energetic and accomplished, and his soulful voice delivers music with honesty and passion, connecting deeply with fans of all backgrounds.

Maxx's career highlights include opening for musical icons such as B.B. King, Bunny Wailer, John Lee Hooker, Earth, Wind & Fire, and Dickey Betts of the Allman Brothers. He has also shared stages with acts like Third Eye Blind, Otis Rush, and Booker T. & the MG's, consistently leaving audiences in awe of his talent.

He has performed at prestigious venues and events, including BB King's Blues Club in Hollywood and New York, the Oakland Raiders halftime show, the San Jose Jazz Festival, and internationally in Mexico City and the British Virgin Islands. Maxx's electrifying performances, characterized by raw passion and unparalleled skill, guarantee an unforgettable experience for all who see him live.

Whether commanding festival stages, energizing fairs, elevating private events, or opening for iconic artists, Maxx Cabello Jr. captivates every audience with his electrifying talent and signature sound. He continues to carry the torch of American music
